2021/22

Welcome Message from the Chairman, Research Grants Council

The Research Grants Council (RGC) of the Hong Kong University Grants Committee (UGC) is committed to promoting world-class research in Hong Kong. Through our PhD Fellowships, Hong Kong's outstanding universities offer research opportunities in a broad range of PhD programmes, with generous stipends and excellent support for the best and brightest students in the world. On behalf of the RGC, I proudly present to you the Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme 2021/22.

Established by the RGC in 2009, the prestigious Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme has brought about two thousand four hundred top students from around ninety countries/regions to Hong Kong to undertake PhD studies in our highly ranked research universities in fields ranging from humanities, business and social sciences, to engineering, medical and physical sciences. Following the success in the first eleven rounds, we are looking for talented people who wish to pursue their PhD studies in Hong Kong, and aspire to be research elites of the time to take part in the Twelfth Round, study awards of which will commence in the 2021/22 academic year.

Hong Kong, long an international business and finance centre and a unique bridge between East and West, draws talent from all corners of the globe. Our research universities have strong dynamism and drive, with international faculty and students excelling in the forefront of research. Our Fellowship programme unites cultural diversity and a rich research environment.

Hong Kong's universities are extending the boundaries of various fields including sciences, engineering, humanities, arts, social sciences, medicine, biotechnology, business, and specialisations such as AI and robotics, infectious diseases, Fintech, urban green engineering, textile design, logistics and supply chain management.

Our universities host some of Asia's – and the world's – best facilities and programmes, from our world-class business management programmes to pioneering research in areas such as brain science, avian influenza, liver transplantation, nanoscience and new materials, wireless communications, China studies, clean energy and sustainable environment, and Chinese medicine. With English as the medium of instruction and research universities steeped in international collaboration, research and career opportunities abound.

I encourage you to learn more about Asia's World City and the opportunities our universities present. A culturally rich, cosmopolitan city set amidst the sea and mountains, nestled against China and its rich heritage, Hong Kong and its research universities offer the world's best and brightest students an ideal place to study, live and work.

I look forward to welcoming you to Hong Kong.

Professor Joseph Hun-wei Lee
Chairman, Research Grants Council
Hong Kong, China

Who can apply

Candidates seeking admission as new full-time PhD students in the eight UGC-funded universities, irrespective of their country of origin, prior working experience, and ethnic background are welcomed to apply.

About the award

The Fellowship will provide a competitive annual stipend and a conference and research-related travel allowance per year up to three years. 300 PhD Fellowships will be awarded in the 2021/22 academic year¹.

How are awardees selected

Shortlisted applicants, subject to their proposed areas of studies, will be reviewed by one of the following two Selection Panels:

- Sciences, Medicine, Engineering and Technology
- Humanities, Social Sciences and Business Studies.

While candidates' academic excellence is the primary consideration, the Selection Panels will take into account factors such as the candidates' research ability and potential, communication and interpersonal skills as well as leadership abilities.

How to apply

Eligible candidates should make their initial application to the RGC through the online system at <https://icerg1.ugc.edu.hk/hkpts/initApplication.jsp> to obtain an HKPFS Reference Number before submitting full applications to their selected universities.
